Since Merco .35 is the topic, maybe someone can offer advice. I have a number of new Merco .35s. Some have a reddish-orange head and a one-piece crankcase, Some have separate aluminum fins that slide onto the sleeve. Some have separate fins and are a very dark grey colour. I test-ran the one with the reddish head and it seems to run similar to a Fox .35. I have not run the others. So, what's ...
